“My plans continue to include returning to Cameroon in May or June, though the details of what my role will look like are still less clear. At this point my prayer is that I will be able to return to my teaching role, though that will be somewhat dependent on who they recruit as a director and their opinion on the matter. For now, I am moving forward with all that in mind until/unless God leads otherwise .

. . and holding loosely to the future that I know rests much better in God's hands.”
